DETAILED OUTLINE

WEAPONS HANDLING EXERCISE

1. TRAINING OBJECTIVE

a. Intent. This exercise provides practice in weapons handling. Students will be evaluated on weapons handling skills to include weapons carries, weapons transports, filling magazines, and response to weapons commands. Adherence to the four safety rules will be enforced throughout the exercise.

b. Learning Objectives. The Division Match instruction is structured to prepare the shooter to fire the Division Match Course and is not a component of a formal school program. Therefore, there are no learning objectives.

2. EXERCISE PLANNING

a. Range. Ensure a range/outdoor training area is available for the exercise.

b. Supply List. Ensure necessary supplies are available to support the exercise.

c. Equipment. The following equipment is required for each shooter:

- 1) M16A2/A4 service rifle.
- 2) Sling.
- 3) Cartridge belt.
- 4) Magazines and magazine pouches.
- 5) Dummy ammunition.

INSTRUCTOR'S NOTE: A load-bearing vest may be substituted for magazine pouches. Gear will be worn in accordance with the MBST Handbook.

d. Ammunition. For this exercise, dummy ammunition is required for each instructor.

e. Safety. Ensure safety requirements comply with MCO P3570.1_ and local SOP.

3. EXERCISE SETUP

a. Set up practical application stations for weapons carries and transports, weapons commands, and filling magazines. Set up as many practical application stations as necessary to evaluate students in one hour.

b. Give your students approximately two hours for practice prior to the one-hour evaluation.

4. CONDUCT OF EXERCISE

a. Exercise Brief. The following items must be included in the brief to students prior to the start of the exercise:

1) Students will be given two hours for practice prior to the one-hour evaluation.

2) Students will be evaluated on weapons handling through questions and performance at the various practical application stations. Students will not execute the "Fire" or the "Cease Fire" commands. A performance checklist and questions will be used to evaluate students in the following areas:

a) Knowledge of the safety rules.

b) Carries and transports.

c) Filling magazines.

d) Knowledge of weapons conditions.

e) Execution of weapons commands.

f) Transferring the weapon.

3) Review safety rules, commands, and weapons handling procedures and emphasize these procedures throughout the exercise.

4) Instructors will provide immediate feedback to students on their performance.

b. Exercise Procedures

1) Filling Magazines. At this station, students will load the specified number of dummy rounds into a magazine.

2) Weapons Carries/Transports. At this station, students will demonstrate the following weapons carries/ transports on command.

- a) The Tactical Carry/Controlled Carry.
- b) The Alert.
- c) The Ready.
- d) Strong Side Sling Arms (Muzzle Up).
- e) Weak Side Sling Arms (Muzzle Down).

3) Weapons Commands/Condition Codes. At this station, students will answer questions on weapons conditions and respond to the following commands:

- a) "Load."
- b) "Make Ready."
- c) "Unload."
- d) "Unload, Show Clear."

4) Transferring the Rifle. At this station, students will safely transfer the rifle to another student.

5. EXERCISE EVALUATION

The student must master all performance steps to pass this exercise (100% mastery of learning objectives). Students failing to achieve mastery will receive remedial instruction.
